Mocha's Bash for the Birds Support Teton Raptor Center

September 3rd, 2015 - Brookover Gallery and Teton Raptor Center are partnering to offer a wonderful local event entitled: Mocha's Bash for the Birds. The event will take place at the Brookover Gallery on Friday, September 11th, 5-8pm during Jackson Hole Fall Arts Festivals Palates and Palettes Gallery Walk. Celebrate and support raptors with fine food, fine art, fine music and fine feathered friends. Enjoy food provided by Amangani and Four Seasons, live music by Aspen Jacquet and Coby Larsen, and get up close and personal with various live raptors from Teton Raptor Center. There is a $5 donation per person at the door and a small silent auction made up of items donated by gaslight alley businesses. 100% of the proceeds support Teton Raptor Center's Conservation, Education and Rehabilitation programs. For more information about Mocha's Bash for the Birds, or Teton Raptor Center programs, contact TRC's Director of Development and Communications David Watson at 307.690.7654 or david@tetonraptorcenter.org.

ABOUT TETON RAPTOR CENTER

Teton Raptor Center helps birds of prey through education, conservation and rehabilitation. We are a nonprofit organization of conservation biologists, educators, veterinarians, wildlife rehabilitators and volunteers, working together to help birds of prey and promote environmental health through veterinary care and rehabilitation, educational programs and conservation research. TRC is located at the historic Hardeman Ranch, a Jackson Hole Land Trust protected property in Wilson, Wyoming. If you find an injured raptor, please call the Injured Raptor Line: 307.200.6019.
